

SOCIAL INCLUSION AND AGEING MIGRANTS

2 Oct 2019

This seminar focuses on the integration and participation of ageing migrants in Europe. We explore the future of multicultural elderly care, the impact of the wellbeing economy on integration and the pathways of participation in Finland and the rest of Europe

Seminar is a side event of Finland's EU Presidency programme

Seminar is held in English and is free of charge

Time

2 Oct 2019 from 9:00 – 16:00

Place

The Helsinki Music Center, Rehearsal hall Paavo Mannerheimintie 13 A, 00100 Helsinki

Registration by 16 September 2019

valli.fi/tapahtumat

Additional information

ailli.korteniemi@valli.fi

EU2019.FI

Speakers include

Tarja Halonen

Former President of Finland

Justin Derbyshire

Chief Executive, HelpAge International

Sirpa Wrede

Professor of Sociology, University of Helsinki, Vice Director, Centre of Excellence in Research on Ageing and Care

Shadia Rask

Project Manager, PhD
National Institute for Health and Welfare

Leealaura Leskelä

Development Manager
The Finnish Center for Easy to Read

Aili Korteniemi

Project Coordinator
Valli – The Finnish Union for Senior Service

Welcome remarks

Hanna-Leena Ojalainen

Vice Chairman
Valli – The Finnish Union for Senior Services

Virpi Dufva

Executive Director
Valli – The Finnish Union for Senior Services

Hosted by

Vappu Taipale

HelpAge International Board of Trustees